

Fishman Haygood Welcomes Top-rated Bankruptcy Team of Billy Patrick, Tristan Manthey, and Cherie Nobles

Fishman Haygood has expanded its capabilities to assist clients dealing with distressed businesses and properties (whether as a creditor or debtor) which may include restructuring and formal bankruptcy cases, with the addition of three leading lawyers – William H. Patrick, III, Tristan E. Manthey and Cherie Dessauer Nobles and their support staff.

Billy Patrick and Tristan Manthey will head the firm's restructuring and bankruptcy practice. The team was previously with Heller, Draper, Patrick, Horn & Manthey.

In addition to their extensive experience and expertise representing debtors, this highly rated team also represents committees of creditors and equity holders, individual creditors and other stakeholders in Chapter 11 reorganizations, out of court restructurings and other insolvency related proceedings and litigation.

Their experience includes working with a broad range of businesses in the energy, hospitality, real estate, retail and manufacturing sectors. The team will be working with clients out of the firm's offices in New Orleans and Baton Rouge, and the firm's planned Houston office.
